Variety is the spice of life, Proverb Stories, Tenses, English Grammar

But I may sometimes draw his attention to something obvious, for that is the sort of thing that the learned man has a way of falling over in the street. We have all heard it said that the Renaissance was produced or precipitated by the Fall of Constantinople.

The Spice of Life: Metric Variation in Formal Verse (An Essay)

We may be allowed to associate it with the jolly uncle who does not believe in ghosts. Wit corresponds to the divine virtue of justice, in so far as so dangerous a virtue can belong to man. It was enough to say that a religion was a romance, and a romance a delusion.

Short Essay on a Function in My School

Lady Macbeth was strong in the very female sense which is perhaps a more courageous sense; she killed herself, but not in battle. As he very sensibly points out, an arbitrary amputation by somebody else is not an acquired characteristic at all; any more than we can talk of a man acquiring a railway accident. Crumbled leaves are added to potpourri.

Reading Ideas: Memoirs, Autobiographies, and Essays

There is a mood at the back of the whole work of Dickens as much as there is a mood at the back of the whole work of Maeterlinck; and it must be confessed with shame, as far as I am concerned, that our mood is the mood of Maeterlinck and not the mood of Dickens. Now if we are to look sympathetically for the soul in every dogma, surely we must look for that something in the soul which makes it clothe itself in every case in a particular and personal body. That is in part because at this stage in ones development one is more open to change, more open to learn new things and more open to experiment.

What Does Variety is the Spice of Life Mean?

Your essay is educational and inspirational — a perfect combination for those who love to read and write poetry. That would be disastrous at best. When a set of emotions become familiar to a people, the art which expresses them will appear not only philosophical but obviously artistic.

Paragraph, Essay and Speech on “Variety is the Spice of Life” Paragraph for Class 9, Class 10, Class 12 Class and Graduate Exams.

Why should not a sphere sufficiently represent universalism; so that the faithful might be found adoring a plum-pudding or a cannon-ball? It is for those who read the Fables to judge whether he was really thrown over the cliff for being ugly and offensive, or rather for being highly moral and correct. She has that perfect and splendid cynicism of women which is the most terrible thing God has made. .

The Spice of Life, by G. K. Chesterton

Cobbett, for instance, was an amateur historian in somewhat the same sense, though less amateurish than myself. Let us explore some others.
