Rather, I would've read and reread my favourites. The illustrations are what really make this a favourite, though. The topics of the poems are still relevant to today's children and are very endearing.

Cyndy Szekeres

The book is in excellent condition, and it arrived with a few other titles packed so very carefully by the seller. Review- This book has amazingly artistic and detailed illustrations, and children are able to follow along with the pictures with what is happening in the poems.

Cyndy Szekeres Book of Poems, 1981, Child's First Book Of Poems

A great introduction to poetry for children.

Three jolly gentlemen, At break of day, Came clitter-clatter down the stairs And galloped away. This is the second time I have ordered from from this shop and she always adds little extras and hand written notes! Twenty years later, I have fallen in love with this book again as I read it to a pre-schooler before naptime.
