Canadian paddle-in trips ie: not flying require that all individuals, 18 and over, to obtain a Customs clearance 45 days in advance of the trip. While we can not promise a moose will appear we can tell you this area contains one of the highest and densest populations in all of Minnesota.

Canoe Camping in the BWCA : How to choose a campsite

Quetico Provincial Park: Covering over 4750 square kilometers and having only 2,200 backcountry interior campsites scattered on over 600 lakes, it's no wonder is considered a world class wilderness canoe camping destination and that doesn't come cheap. Wildlife abounds in Canoe Country.
