Seeking a Better Country

We have a confessional identity, a form of government, and a historic form of worship in the elements, not circumstances.

Seeking a Better Country: 300 Years of American Presbyterianism

The Whole Counsel Of God. In Part one, the authors cover the years 1706-1789 explaining how Presbyterianism came to America, its distinction which has been called a grass roots movement from Scottish Presbyterianism, and the first major division Old Side v. The and arose from the.
