A Handful of Dust

The experience was fictionalised a few years later, in 1957.

A Handful of Dust

Because religion is a decorative leitmotif in this book rather than its theme. Having seen Black Mischief launched to mixed but generally favourable critical comment Oldmeadow's intervention was not immediate, Waugh sailed from on 2 December 1932. Un général manchot et borgne du nom de Ritchie-Hook allusion à peine voilée au célèbre général Carton de Wiart le prend sous ses ordres à intervalles réguliers.

Charles meets Sebastian Flyte at Oxford university. We're accustomed to authors apologising for youthful early works - I'd understand him apologising for the somewhat puerile and vicious A Handful of Dust - but not for a novel written at the peak of his powers and especially not for a novel posterity has revealed to be by far the most well-loved of his books. Waugh's next major book was a biography of his longtime friend, the Catholic writer and theologian who had died in August 1957.

Brideshead Revisited by Evelyn Waugh

The characters are ambiguous and compelling. As a critic, I get to see a pre-screening of the new movie on Tuesday; I am taking Dr. I didn't connect with any of the characters and just found them way too pompous.
