Edna St. Vincent Millay: Selected Poems

Trees, walls, snow, seem to be under glass.

Edna St. Vincent Millay: Selected Poems

The rim Of the sky will be the colour of hard crimson, And your heart, as it was then, will be on fire. Akhmatova is certainly one of the great poets of the 20thc, and Requiem in particular remains one of the key literary works of the century.

Selected Poems by W.H. Auden

Christophe des Laurieres and Clérigo Herrero, however, are not real people, and the poems are actually compositions of Smith's. Leap Before You Look 64.

Theodore Roethke: Selected Poems

There are some of his poems I simply don't get, and some it took me very long to decipher. Auden's collection of poems is something that any poetry lover would cherish for long.

Selected Poems book by Lord Byron

Essentially the poetry of experience, its promise is great, its performance so far impressive.

Selected Poems by Harry Crosby

I think it's because poetry's pure form isn't the physical book. Up-flying arms, with a bad break, Tormented smile—I and the sitter Had to become thus through the bitter Hours of profligate give and take.

Selected Poems by W. H. Auden: 9780307278081

The life of man is never quite completed; The daring and the chatter will go on: But, as an artist feels his power gone, These walk the earth and know themselves defeated.
