A Long-finned Pilot Whale and a Striped Dolphin were necropsied but no clear cause of stranding was found see species accounts. They are overseen by District Court judges. Lucas December 1975 1 D N - - - - G.

Bibliography on the type

On all occasions a large number of seabirds northern gan- nets, shearwaters and gulls were feeding with the dolphins, and during the November 1997 observa- tion the blows of at least one large baleen whale wereseen in the same area as the dolphins. Siltation from logging disturbance could reduce trout populations by up to 50% on 6 miles of stream.

Ausserdeutsche regionale Geologie

Fossils have been found here. In addition, 63 percent of the drainage inside the study area that feeds both onsite and offsite wetlands in the Centennial Valley may be developed. Towards a DNA taxonomy of Caribbean demosponges: a gene tree reconstructed from partial mitochondrial CO1 gene sequences supports previous rDNA phylogenies and provides a new perspective on the systematics of Demospongiae.
