complete failure to meet Parks Canada's heritage and ecological mandates on the Rideau Canal. Members of Parliament from affected ridings were inundated with calls from boaters, marina associations, mayors, chambers of commerce, tour boat operators and houseboat rental companies.

Rideau and Trent Severn

Boating Ontario represents 29 Rideau marinas with 1900 slips and 83 Trent Severn marinas with 7700 slips. We especially liked the versatile new Zhik Neck Gaiter. Due to Covid-19 restrictions, activities on the Rideau were much quieter because each tour required permission from Parks Canada before it could be booked or carried out.

Rideau Canal National Historic Site

The navigation season for most of the canals opens today across the country. The Rideau Canal is living history, each of the historic lockstations is a fascinating place to explore.

Rideau Canal

For canals, this means Parks Canada will be aligning its seasons, hours of operation and personal service offer to better reflect patterns of visitation.

Rideau Canal

Under the 2012 Federal Budget, Parks Canada is adjusting the duration of operating seasons and hours of operation at national parks, canals and national historic sites when tourism demand is lowest. These tours are aimed at schools, families, and community and business groups and are a great way to see this unique National and UNESCO heritage site from a different perspective. The Honourable Peter Kent, Canadian Minister of Environment and Minister responsible for Parks Canada, today announced the 2013 navigation season for the historic canals and the Trent Severn Waterway.

Rideau and Trent Severn

In 2000, the Rideau Waterway was designated a , recognizing its outstanding natural, cultural, and recreational values.
