Did Economic Sanctions Help End Apartheid in South Africa?

I would just like to mention two other disturbing developments regarding Koeberg. The Congressional action did not end U.

Constructive Engagement and the Arms Embargo

Fortuitously, wider international events quelled other white South African fears of the consequences of ending apartheid. It remained a voluntary arms embargo.

How America Supported White Apartheid In South Africa

Only when the staying power of the South African regime became apparent did the arguments for more substantial international pressure become more compelling.

As a sideshow to that conflict, the South African Defense Force SADF also became involved in fighting in Angola to the north, where it would meet well-equipped Cuban and other Soviet-backed forces.

United Nations and Apartheid Timeline 1946

These hearings come at a critical time in southern Africa. South Africa, an international pariah for much of the Cold War due to its apartheid policy, remains the only country to have developed nuclear weapons and then voluntarily given them up. The full contingent of 50 observers was expected to be deployed in October.

The United Nations against Apartheid

While Western governments—particularly those of the United States and Britain—were reluctant to take decisive steps against Pretoria for economic and strategic reasons, domestic pressure often forced them to act. Brewster ed , Can South Africa Survive? While a veil of secrecy remained over the program, de Klerk oversaw the removal of enriched uranium from the weapons that had been completed.
