Thank you Islamicity for publishing this article on your website! Attention to Islamic materials from outside the central Arabic lands is of special interest, as are comparisons that stress the diversity of Islam as it interacts with changing human conditions. Jazakallah Khair, Mir Ruwaid Anwar. We forget that men are the caretakers of the family and that the wife has rights over her property.

Women and Religious authorities in Islam

This means, of course, that such knowledge is inflected by the author's biases, open to error, and reflective of social relationships of power since only certain views - almost always male and conservative - get to be heard. Published as part of Penn State's Magic in History series, Prayer, Magic, and the Stars appears at a time of renewed interest in divination and occult practices in the ancient world.

Women and Religious authorities in Islam

To clarify my point, a Muslim woman scholar will have a deeper understanding of the classification of hadith, the Arabic morphology and grammar and different interpretations of the words in the hadith as well as understanding of wide variety of opinions on it. I disagree with the author's conclusions regarding her example of creation from a single nafs.
