

Oakford - the history of a Devon parish

E.W. Bentley - St Peter's

Description: -

-

Zirconium -- Corrosion -- Congresses

Ainu

Oakfield (Devon) -- History. Oakford - the history of a Devon parish

- Oakford - the history of a Devon parish

Notes: Includes index.

This edition was published in 1982

Filesize: 22.56 MB

Tags: #The #Devon #FHS

GENUKI: Oakford, Devon

These secondary schools all cater for ages 11—16. There are a parochial school, and charities £10. The barton of Colwell gave name to a family which possessed it for six generations; it afterwards passed successively to Park and Courtenay, and through the Peverells and Hungerfords to the Earl of Huntingdon, who sold it to Collins.

9780950794204

While equivalent records--particularly wills--are quite easy to come by for other English counties, some records for Devon and surrounding counties do not exist. Mortimore of Tiverton in 1841. Prince Maurice was there on the 17th of July, 1644.

St Peter's

The society has branches in various parts of the county. These secondary schools all cater for ages 11—16. The manor belonged anciently to the Montacutes, earls of Salisbury, of whom it was purchased by Sir Lewis Pollard, one of the justices of the Common Pleas, in the reign of Henry VII.

9780950794204

The village stands on a bold acclivity, adjacent to a tributary of the river Exe, 2 miles S of the boundary with Somerset, 3 W S W of Bampton, and 6½ N W of Tiverton r.

Oakford, Devon Genealogy • FamilySearch

I can get a copy drafted in to my local library at a high cost but it cannot be taken off the premises which is no good to me. About the beginning of the seventeenth century it belonged to Burrige, whose heirs sold it to Yonge.

Oakford Devon Family History Guide

Peter, was rebuilt about 12 years ago, and has a tower and eight bells. After having been quartered some time round Exeter, the General made Ottery his head-quarters, from the 15th of November till the 6th of December that year. Transcribers' comments are enclosed in square brackets.

Place:Oakford, Devon, England

Thorne, in this parish, gave name to an ancient family, whose heiress brought it to Coke. Please see our for full information and policies. It is now the property of Sir Thomas Hare, Bart.

9780950794204

The Deaneries are used to arrange the typescript Church Notes of B. This page was last modified 13:20, 1 July 2021. A furlong of land, which had been a sanctuary, and the advowson of the chapel of Fen Ottery, were given to the priory of Otterton, by John de Furneaux, in 1259.

Related Books

- Teaching humanities to pupils with special educational needs - a practical resource
- Cambodian cookbook = - Le guide culinaire Cambodgien
- Rape of the peasantry - Latin Americas landholding system
- Liederhort der deutschen Buchdrucker.
- Razor edge of balance - a study of Virginia Woolf.