9 Rules to Make Joint Child Custody Work

RIGHTS AND DUTIES DURING PERIOD OF POSSESSION. The father filed a motion to change the custody agreement to gain sole legal custody of the child. If the custody order indicates that the consent of only one parent is required, the therapist can make then a clinical determination as to whether it is appropriate to begin treatment with the consent of only one parent.

The role of children's views during divorce

The answer to all those questions of course is YES! The presumption that a parent should be appointed or retained as managing conservator of the child is rebutted if the court finds that: 1 the parent has voluntarily relinquished actual care, control, and possession of the child to a nonparent, a licensed child-placing agency, or the Department of Family and Protective Services for a period of one year or more, a portion of which was within 90 days preceding the date of intervention in or filing of the suit; and 2 the appointment of the nonparent, agency, or Department of Family and Protective Services as managing conservator is in the best interest of the child.
