successful, but no trust or meaningful relationship with those you manage can happen without it.

14 Factors for Measuring Leadership and Management Performance

Insubordination must be handled immediately. Leadership often requires you to go against the grain, swim against the flow, and even break a rule or two. In the instance of officer Hamilton, it was obvious the reason for his failure.

Effective Leadership and Performance Management

Others may just need a little reminder to help reignite your use of these important leadership strategies.

High Performance Leadership Program

Hamilton was to remain on administrative leave until the use of force committee made further recommendations regarding Hamilton to the chief of police.
