10 of the Best Restoration Plays Everyone Should Read

Restoration comedy at its finest. The Provoked Wife is at The Swan Theatre, Stratford-upon-Avon, from 2 May to 7 September 2019.

The Provoked Wife (RSC)

The play is sometimes revived, such as by the National Theatre in 2007 when Tom Hardy played the role of the rakish Dorimant. In the wrong hands, and with the wrong actors, a once-vibrant play is all too easily warped into a farcical period piece. This play and a lot Pinter plays just end and nothing is resolved.

the provoked wife : definition of the provoked wife and synonyms of the provoked wife (English)

By the end of the play, with her face-paint and wig cast aside, you feel genuine compassion for her as she is cruelly and yet deservingly mocked.

The Provoked Wife theatre review, RSC Swan, Stratford

Restoration comedy can be a hard sell for modern audiences.

THE PROVOKED WIFE

The resulting effect is self-indulgent and, far from satirising the rich, it merely portrays them. Vanbrugh's Restoration comedy is a bawdy romp through the destruction of a marriage and the promise of true love.
