Mothers Recompense by Aguilar

Before I quite conclude, let me say how pleased I am to think that, although you still regret Oak- wood, you can find some pleasures in your present life.

The mother's recompense : a sequel to home influence : Aguilar, Grace, 1816

Lord Henry D'Este is one of the most amusing creatures I ever met with, he has always some droll anecdote to relate that calls forth universal merriment ; but of single men, the Earl of St.

Alfred, I leave England my heart is bursting ; for Mary's sake alone I live, and if she be taken from me, Alfred, we shall never meet again. I saw she envied me even when we were children, and therefore fancied myself a most important personage. We parted in August, and it is now January ; and except during our little tour, you have not had one line from me, but very many more than one from Caroline and Ellen.
