Within the context of a rapidly changing United Kingdom and Europe, Scotland is engaged in an ongoing process of self-definition. The Award may be of particular interest to learners living and studying in Scotland, as it will provide them with opportunities to broaden their understanding and appreciation of the society in which they live. Assessment Support Packs for optional Scottish context units Assessment Support Packs have not been produced for the optional Scottish context units but you may find the ASPs produced for the non-Scottish context units helpful.

Scottish Studies Award

Scottish Studies Award The Scottish Studies Award provides opportunities for learners to develop their knowledge and understanding of Scotland — its people, languages such as Scots and Gaelic , society, culture, natural environment and heritage — and to make connections across the curriculum. Approval Centres with devolved authority are eligible to seek approval through their own internal approval process. Guidance on applying for approval and entering candidates for the Scottish Studies Award can be viewed in the document below.
