Maternal homework assistance and children's task

The voluntary national test proposed by President Clinton would follow a similar policy; some districts that had agreed to participate pulled out after they realized that the fourth grade reading test would be administered only in English.

Maternal homework assistance and children's task

States and districts should develop and document policies regarding the basis for assigning accommodations to students and for reporting the results of students who have taken tests with accommodations. Every teacher will have their own reasons for entering this profession, so feel free to provide personal anecdotes in your answer. These assessments, for example, might ask students to gather data and determine the mathematical procedures necessary to design a solution involving architecture or flying.
