These give rise sometimes to serious misunderstanding and unsound interpretation of related traditions. Ethnographers who write about what they have learned from the people that they have been working with often use a research method known as participant-observation.

Tongan music notation

Other headrests identified by Kaeppler 1978:228-30 as possibly being collected during Cook's voyages are what contemporary Tongans would classify as kali toloni.

Tongan music notation

The Moulton notation, or Tongan notation was extremely popular and is still cherished by the Tongans. The material consists of brief notes on a number of topics and four word lists. No digit at all, or a zero, is used for a rest, while a dash is a tie.
