Selection (linguistics)

For example, the word cake has a high thematic fit as a direct object for cut. The concept of c-selection overlaps to an extent with subcategorization.

Problem Consultation

It is a short form that will provide APPIC with the necessary information for consideration for a release from the APPIC Psychology Internship. Alternative to Online Submission Submit by email to APPIC: Attention: Chair, APPIC Standards and Review Committee APPIC APPIC Match Release Request AFTER the IPC has been completed, either the program or the psychology intern will need to file a Match Release Request.

Consultations

Thinking about your color choices will skew your results, as the accurate results of the C Color Quiz are based on intuitive selections, not thought choices.

Problem Consultation

The main focus of each case should be within a different clinical topic area of the curriculum. However - explanations should be relevant to the patient in the context of this consultation, helpful and understandable to them. ASARC does NOT reverse decisions of training programs though that may occur, ASARC puts the focus on program policies and procedures to insure they meet and follow APPIC membership criteria.

Mandatory Case selection criteria for Recorded Consultation Assessment

Note: a single consultation may satisfy more than one criterion.

Problem Consultation

If there is a difference between these concepts, it resides with the status of the subject argument.
