The October Revolution vs. The "Cultural Revolution"

Dissolution would be the consequence of opposite trends, especially if distinctiveness declined and the structures of authority, solidarity, and culture lost power. At the 1903 congress, divisions developed within the party. The essential reform of voting should rather consist in allowing individuals to vote themselves out of the existing territorial institutions as well as out of any of the panarchies to be established, which they do dislike and to join others, exterritorial and voluntary one ones, which are prepared to accept them - or to establish their own.
