

Report - presented to parliament by command of His Majesty, June 1949.

H.M.S.O. - Report of the Committee of Privy Councillors appointed to inquire into the interception of communications

Description: -

-Report - presented to parliament by command of His Majesty, June 1949.

-

NASA SP -- 5028

Cmd -- 7695Report - presented to parliament by command of His Majesty, June 1949.

Notes: Chairman: Sir Hubert Douglas Henderson.

This edition was published in 1949

Filesize: 63.53 MB

Tags: #Race #Report

Reports by Sir Robert H. Schomburgk

As a result of interceptions of communications between 1948 and 1957, such seizures amounted to a total of £736,490.

1628: Petition of Right

In the 1930's considerable numbers of warrants were issued for the interception of letters, mainly passing to or from places abroad, believed contain obscene and indecent matter.

Great Britain Colonial Office (Great Britain. Colonial Office)

This is of course for the House itself to determine. . CAIN: Macrory Report, June 1970 CAIN Web Service Review Body on Local Government in Northern Ireland, 1970 Text: Patrick A.

[TELEVISION]. (1) Television: The world's first television journal. A monthly magazine devoted to the interests and progress of the science of seeing by wire and wireless. Vol. 1, nos. 1

We are quite satisfied that the problems of national security are such that no reasonable weapon should be taken from the hands of those whose duty it is to watch over all subversive activities in the safeguarding of British interests. We have set out in paragraphs 57 et seq of our Report the procedure which is followed by the Secretary of State before the issue of any warrant and we have been very much influenced in our conclusions by the nature of that procedure.

Parliament Acts 1911 and 1949

Edison Telephone Company, IB80 6 Q. The first three measures for which the Act has been used since 1949 were not mentioned in manifestos, and hence in trying to veto them the Lords were not breaking the. John Oliver, our Secretary, Mr.

Report of the Royal Commission on Population by Royal Commission on Population

With regard to the use to be made of the information discovered. It may be said that, nevertheless, considering the great complexity of the subject, a satisfactory review could hardly be completed in a time that is short indeed compared with that taken by, say, the Redcliffe-Maud or the Wheatley Commissions.

Related Books

- Letter from William Henry Harrison, Governor of the Indiana Territory - inclosing certain resolution
- Memoires de mathematique et de physique...
- Kunst und Subjektivität in Hegels Ästhetik
- Princeton University Library Latin American microfilm collection.
- RACER # 3252307