Review: Gusev

They sell you a sponge or a goldfish and all the time they are looking out for a chance of getting something extra out of you. I am the wife of a civil servant, Nastasya Fyodorovna Merchutkina. I thank you from the bottom of my heart.

Eureka Study Aids

My lady is going to Varsonofyev from the town.

ED BULLINS, ANTON CHEKHOV, AND THE OF on JSTOR

I can put a bullet through a coin tossed into the air as it comes down.

Review: Gusev

The heartbreak that is felt as the characters lose what they want most is diminished by the sense that these characters have not lost their sense of humor; in addition, presenting both negative and positive emotions makes the characters, and their situations, much more accessible to the audience. Lopakhin is a wealthy man who is in a better financial situation than the Ranevskys, yet they will never accept him as a social equal.
