Rare & Collectible Books

This collection contains 42 black and white photographs of architectural drawings that were submitted by the various firms for the contest. Images generally depict Kansas City buildings, parks, streets, important events, local personalities, and aerial views of Kansas City. Few photos of rolling stock and engines appear, but views of railroad track and bridges are numerous as well as railroad employees such as cooks and depot workers.

The Fiske Dante Collection

These late nineteenth-century images of early Kansas City, primarily the 1870s-1890s, provide unique views such as the Board of Trade building under construction, exterior and interior views of the glass Exposition Building, unusual weather events, hotels, and businesses.
