May God help us to achieve the purpose in Jesus name. They have a commitment to mission beyond the parish and this is significantly reflected in their budget.

Ministry Clarity

They understand that in an era of hyper-competition and non-stop disruption, the only way to stand out from the crowd is to stand for something special.

THE RESPONSIBILITIES OF THE LOCAL CONGREGATION TOWARD THE ELDERS

In other words, real leaders are happy to zig while others zag. Futurism is a difficult art, as anyone who has wished for a personal jetpack to get to work knows.

Evangelism

What does that mean for leadership? The audio book can be downloaded to your phone or pad.

Nebraska Synod ELCA : News & Resources : Resources : For Congregations... : Worship Resources : We Are Church Lenten Resources

It will help you think through a theology of evangelism and discipleship and help you to present the gospel so that people will clearly understand it, sincerely embrace it, and firmly hold on to it.

C. Andrew Doyle: Imagining the church of the future

We also looked at the authority of the Elders in the local congregation. We did the first four segments and then watched the Hope DVD up through the entrance of Lucifer. By Peter Corney I made the point that while we are in a difficult environment for growing Churches there are healthy growing congregations out there.

Being a transformational leader & growing your Church (Part 2)

I can understand why God told him to move away. There are huge cultural trends that are at work right now, and we can see those out in advance of us.
