What were you about all that time, hidden away there? This requires efforts from the government as well as from the people QUESTIONS FOR EXERCISE 1 Define poverty Mention steps to eradicate it 2 Describe the main causes of poverty with special reference to Indian condition 12 Beggary The beggary is a curse for any society under any conditions and circumstances; but in a poor country like India it is not only a curse but a great financial burden, too. To Jo's lively fancy, this fine house seemed a kind of enchanted palace, full of splendors and delights which no one enjoyed.

Five years ago, female education was so backward in the Kristna District that the Government reported it the most backward in the whole Presidency. Money was borrowed at ruinous rates, and the survey of routes for the various railroads was begun. This property was worth when our Convention purchased it three times more than we paid for it.

I do not expect in any sense to write a history of Decatur, yet, to make my recollections of early days of any value, I must indulge in some historical reminiscences. We have certainly arrived at a period of history when two things are impossible — a political meddler on the throne, or a dissolute king. Davis had evidently taken his coffee too strong that morning, there was an east wind, which always affected his neuralgia, and his pupils had not done him the credit which he felt he deserved.

An educated and paid ministry is the crying need of the churches in the south. America is just now, as never before, posing before the world as a highly liberal and civilized nation, and in many respects she has a right to this reputation. Indeed, Boston is the acknowledged centre of intellectual culture and literary work.

When God gave the signal, and it began to rain, the water poured down forty entire days, till it became fifteen cubits higher than the earth; which was the reason why there was no greater number preserved, since they had no place to fly to. But Miss Mason's idea of Education was not only that, it was an atmosphere and a life, but also a discipline. The training of the person is naturally a quieter affair than the imparting of knowledge: we can hold exhibitions of the work done by P.
