Symphony No. 31 (Mozart)

The symphony was later performed in the in Vienna on 11 March 1783 during a benefit concert for Mozart's sister-in-law, the singer.

Richardson Symphony Orchestra

Mozart continued: I prayed to God that it might go well, for it is all to His greater honor and glory: and behold—the symphony began.

Richardson Symphony Orchestra

It perhaps sounds unkind to suggest that, in the France of Louis XVI, Parisians stressed style over substance, but the fact is that not a single symphony from that time and place has persisted to achieve repertory status apart from works by foreigners—specifically, this Mozart work and the group of symphonies Haydn composed for a different Paris orchestra a decade later.

MOZART

The safety of our audience, musicians, and staff is most important, so we will follow all social distancing protocols. It has just three movements Allegro assai, Andante, Allegro ; unlike German works, it did not include a minuet.
