Athanasius

And it is but consistent to attach the same sense to both expressions as applied to the , and not to interpret 'offspring' in a good sense, and 'coessential' otherwise; since to be consistent, you who are thus minded and who say that the Son is Word and Wisdom of the , should entertain a different view of these terms also, and understand Word in another sense, and Wisdom in yet another. And the number of their Councils, and the difference of their statements is a that those who were present at them, while at variance with the Nicene, are yet too feeble to harm the Truth. He was the true pillar of the Church.
