Discography Miles Davis

While his performance is indeed great, Miles had many solos on his recent albums no less significant than the one at Newport. Book is in Used-Good condition.

10 Mind

His tone on the trumpet improved and so his ability to lead groups of musicians at recording sessions and in clubs. The Shape Of Jazz To Come was extremely divisive at the time, but its status as one of the best jazz albums in history is secure today; it gave birth to the free jazz movement that would gain momentum as a viable musical currency in the 60s.
