Prior to one month following the effective date of this bill, the bill directs the commissioner, to the greatest extent reasonably possible, to: notify homeowners of the forbearance program; notify landlords who may obtain a forbearance, or other qualifying financial relief, of their responsibilities to alert their tenants of the option, if emergency-impacted, to apply for an emergency rent reduction period; post information on eligibility and the application process for the forbearance, and make forbearance applications available, on DCA's website; notify the courts of the individuals and associated residential properties that are eligible for a forbearance; and notify the State's active mortgage lenders of the individuals and associated residential properties that are eligible for a forbearance. The bill also revises the health care cost adjustment available to a school district under its tax levy growth limitation.

In addition, for existing play areas with limited resources, it will often be more efficient to devote resources to making the ground surface of the play area accessible, which is necessary to provide an accessible route to any play components. By limiting the number of tickets that can be purchased under this provision to four, the Department seeks a balance by which groups and families can be accommodated while still leaving ample space for other individuals who use wheelchairs. Is additional regulatory guidance required to eliminate discriminatory policies, practices, and procedures related to the sale, hold, and release of accessible seating? In the current regulation, title III defines new construction at \hat{A} § 36.
