Enjoy a trip down memory lane. It is clear to the reader that, just like the woman in the wallpaper, the narrator is being held prisoner by her husband, and is desperate to break free. These are the writers who have shaped and defined the landscape of the American short story, who have unflinchingly explored all aspects of the human condition, and whose works will continue to speak to us in the twenty-first century.

Inspiring Stories of Women of Faith (17th

Epiphany The experience of an epiphany is a key aspect of modernist writing: and also tried to articulate flashes of realisation, revelation, insight and understanding. A famous artist told her that she could be the greatest artist of her generation if she committed herself completely to art.

Three Stories & Ten Poems by Ernest Hemingway

His death this year similarly prompted an interest in his novels, particularly his towering Rabbit books. Still, this story undeniably struck a chord with the reading public, and will likely remain relevant for some time.
