Literary Theory

This effectively replaces philosophical content with mythical narrative and claims of pedigree or status of the founder. The concept of knowledge it uses is prescriptive knowledge.

Theoretical Perspectives on Gender and Development

To what extent has restructuring created polarization and increased inequality of earnings and incomes? He further adds that actions are wrong if and only if they reflect or exhibit a deficiency of fully developed empathic concern for others on the part of the agent. Many theorize that environmental factors, such as parenting style and relationships, play a significant role in the development of empathy in children.
