Tewkesbury looks absolutely beautiful Rosemary.

The Coat of Arms of the Phelps Family in Tewkesbury, England

Prince Edward was betrothed to Warwick's younger daughter the marriage was eventually solemnised at on 13 December 1470 but may not have been consummated, as Margaret was seeking a better match for Edward once he was King. Digital PDF version of Bulletins apart from recent years are available as well as traditional printed versions.

Tewkesbury

The only reason the abbey was saved from destruction during the Dissolution of the Monasteries, was because the people of Tewkesbury insisted that it was their parish church which they had a right to keep safe. It is well laid out over 2 floors. A lot of life in this village revolved around the station.
